Karnataka CM hints at further relaxation of COVID-19 restrictions in Karnataka

BENGALURU, JUNE 15 /--/ Karnataka Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa today indicated that there will be further relaxation in lockdown restrictions in the state after June 21, when the current COVID-19 guidelines come to an end. "After analysing the situation today and tomorrow, we will look into-what is to be done, with the situation improving, and what all to be relaxed further- and we will do it," Yediyurappa said in response to a question about the next phase of unlocking in the state.

According to official sources, the CM is likely to take a decision in this regard, after taking into account advice by the state's COVID-19 Technical Advisory Committee (TAC-consisting of experts), and after consulting senior Ministers and officials of his government, before the end of this week. The government had last week issued fresh guidelines that extended the COVID induced lockdown measures in 11 districts, which have a high positivity rate, till June 21, while some relaxations were announced in the rest of the state from June 14. It had be imposed from 7 pm to 5 am and weekend curfew will be imposed from 7 pm on Friday to 5 am on Monday, after June 14. The eleven districts where strict lockdown measures continued are Chikmagalur, Shivamogga, Davangere, Mysuru, Chamarajanagar, Hassan, Dakshina Kannada, Bengaluru Rural, Mandya, Belagavi and Kodagu.

Among the relaxations announced by the government in remaining 19 districts of the state include opening of parks and industrial units with riders, extending the duration of shops selling essential goods, permission for autos and taxis to ply with maximum two passengers, among others. The relaxation in lockdown measures is in place from 6 am on June 14 to 6 am on June 21. The Karnataka government had initially announced 14 days 'close-down' from April 27, but subsequently imposed a complete lockdown from May 10 to May 24, as the COVID cases continued to spike. Citing lockdown yielding results and experts' advice, it was further extended till June 7 and also said that the COVID curfew (daily) will then again till June 14. (PTI)

As the 16-year-old is unwilling to live with his mother, the court did not give his custody to her either. It directed authorities to arrange for the boy's stay in a state facility like a shelter home till February 4, 2022 when he attains the age of majority'. It clarified that he can stay with whoever he likes, including his 'wife' after that. The judgment, given on May 31, was uploaded on the court's website on Monday. Justice J J Munir passed the order while allowing the petition filed by the boy's mother, a native of Azamgarh, who had claimed her son's custody. The petitioner mother's plea was that the minor boy did not have the legal competence to marry the girl and the marriage was void, according to law. The teen had earlier been produced before the court on

Maharashtra: Feeling sick after muck poured on me atbehest of Sena MLA, claims contractor's employee

MUMBAI, JUNE 15 /--/ Days after he was forced to sit on a waterlogged road and garbage was thrown on him at the behest of a Shiv Sena MLA in Mumbai for allegedly not cleaning a drain properly, the victim, who is working as a supervisor for a civic contractor, on Tuesday claimed to have contracted an infection and developed difficulty in breathing after the incident. Justifying his act, Chandivali MLA Dilip Lande had said the contractor was supposed to clean the nullah in Sanjay Nagar area in Kurla properly which he had not done leading to water-logging during rains. After the video of Saturday's incident went viral. Lande said he wanted the "contractor" to realise his responsibility. However, it turned out that the man who was made to sit on the waterlogged road was Narpat Kumar (26), a temporary supervisor working with a civic contractor.

Kumar told PTI that he had filed a written complaint about the incident with the Ghatkopar police station. "I have contracted some kind of infection. I am also facing difficulty in breathing after the incident," he claimed.

According to Kumar, he was admitted in a private hospital in suburban Borivali on Saturday night and discharged on Monday night. "I am going back to my native place in UP today. My family was shocked when they learnt about the incident after watching the video and they haven't slept for the past two days. Therefore, I am going to see them," he said.
